

Max searches for his teddy bears. He looks under the bed, in the toy box and on the shelf. But he can't find them anywhere.

Max walks into the kitchen. Dinner is bubbling on the stove. He peers inside the fridge and in the sink. But there are no teddies there.

Max finds a note on the floor of his bedroom. It says, '5pm the clearing. Don't be late'. The door to his wardrobe swings open.

Max finds himself in a forest. It is getting dark. An owl flies past, flapping its wings and hooting loudly.

Max tiptoes into a clearing. There are his teddies, plus lots of teddy bears he's never seen before, and they are all waving at him.

Soon Max is swaying and twirling around at the teddy bears' picnic. Then everyone sits down and has some food. Yum yum!
